Christmas wouldn't be complete without the annual Elementary Christmas Program, and parents, grandparents and friends sure got a treat Thursday night, Dec. 8 when kindergarten, second-grade and fourth-grade students performed in the HHS auditorium.

Music teacher Marcia Dalton directed the program.

After a quick wave to their parents, kindergartners started off with "Mittens and Gloves," Feliz Navidad! Joyeux Noel!" "Five Little Candles" and "When Santa Comes to our House."

Holyoke kindergarten students kicked off the Dec. 8 Elementary Christmas Program with a darling performance of "Mittens and Gloves." Kids are pictured from left, front row, Isaac Cummings, Luke Sprague and Katelyn Kropp; second row, Ivan Castillo, Diego Careveo and Bryson Crutchfield; and back row, Tyson Mosenteen, Yoselin Peña, Anna Hayes and Braxton Speicher.

—Enterprise photo

They followed up with other numbers including "Chubbly Little Snowman," "Christmas Makes Me Sing," "Reindeer Love to Boogie" and "Jingle Bells Variations."

“Rock‘n’Roll Snowmen” kicked off the second-grade performance with some impressive guitar-playing snowmen, including Isaac Strauss, Theron Roll, José Astorga and Oscar Anguiano Mendoza.

Second-grader José Astorga jams out on his guitar during “Rock‘n’Roll Snowman.”—Enterprise photo

Next up was “Glo-Glo-Glorious” and “Celebramos Juntos” with bell players Baylor Struckmeyer, Kailar Hayes, Aidyn Shafer and Alex Caraveo.

Special group members in “Christmas Comes from the Heart” included Mason Vernon, Levi Dille, Miles Sprague, Kristin Vieselmeyer, Allison Warren, Josie Schlachter, Cade Killin, Dakota Widler, Havyn Powell, Isaac Strauss, Joey Telck, Rachel Krueger, Diego Jimenez, Danielle Wilkening, Lauren Herman, Koby Way, Gage Sprague, Emmanuel Vasquez, Arelys Arteaga and Mia Secrist.