Cowboys and cowgirls donned masks and smiles as Dragon’s Wagon Preschoolers entertained in their annual program in the HHS auditorium Friday, May 4.

“Ride ’em, Rope ’em, Round ’em up” was this year’s program theme, and it was a yee-haw good time for performers and audience alike.

Two groups of preschool students entertained with songs and rhymes, decked out in colorful head pieces and handheld props.

A successful auction was held during the program, as well as a silent auction.

A spaghetti supper kicked off Friday’s evening of entertainment and fund raising for Dragon’s Wagon Preschool.

Children who will not be entering kindergarten next fall opened the cowboy theme program Friday.

All Group 1 children performed in “Ride ’em, Rope ’em, Round ’em Up.”

“Five Little Cowboys” featured Joel Estrada, Clayton Beard, Melik Ruybal Buls, Riley Powell and Theoden Britton.

“Cowboy Pokey” included Vianey Jimenez, Rosalinda Turcios Espinal, Erica Flores, Anessa Colglazier, Chase Guthrie and Edwin Chavez.

DW CORRAL