

4-H archers shoot in State Fair competition

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Tristan Sullivan, 10, Phillips County 4-Her, shot a total of 139 points in archery at the Colorado State Fair in Pueblo Sunday, Aug. 23 in Junior Individual Compound Unlimited.

Scores ranged from 55-192 in the class, with Sullivan shooting his best ever, according to archery leader Jack Wieland.

Perry Garrett, 16, entered in Senior Individual Compound Limited, but experienced an equipment failure with his bow after his practice shots. Wieland accompanied the shooters to Pueblo.

Tristan is the son of Olga and Jeff Sullivan and is a member of Challengers 4-H Club. Perry is the grandson of Dale and Joann Garrett and is a member of Town & Country 4-H Club.
