

Farnsworth art focus to be featured

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

“Picture This” is the theme for the Tuesday, Sept. 22 luncheon in Sterling which will feature Sheryl Farnsworth of Holyoke and Celeste Strid of Cotopaxi.

Farnsworth is an enthusiastic artist, who will share how to bring personal art to the surface of each person in a presentation called “Picture Perfect.”

Strid studied music and art in college. She enjoys oil painting, singing, horses, outdoor activities and reading good books. She will present “Developing the Inner You.”

The upcoming luncheon is sponsored by Sterling Christian Women’s Connection, affiliated with Stonecroft Ministries.

Social time is scheduled from 11:30 a.m.-noon Sept. 22, with the program from noon-1:30 p.m. at NJC Tennant Art Gallery. Those who attend should use the east entrance of Hays Student Center.

Reservations and cancellations are needed by Thursday, Sept. 17. For reservations and complimentary child care, call Donna at 522-5570 or Gail at 526-6426 or email at [gacastle@bre
