

The search is on for Mrs. Holyoke

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Emily Stark, the Colorado director for the Mrs. America Pageant system is announcing the search is on for the new Mrs. Holyoke. Once selected, the community representative will then advance on to compete in the Mrs. Colorado Pageant to be held in May at the Ellie Caulkins Opera House, in downtown Denver.

City and county titleholders will compete to win over $15,000 in prizes, one of which includes, an all expenses paid trip to the nationally televised Mrs. America Pageant.

Interested applicants must live or work in the Holyoke area, must be married during the time of competition, a resident of the state for at least six months, a U.S. citizen and be at least 18 years old. There is no age limit or performing talent.

In its 34th year, the Mrs. America Pageant is the only nationally televised pageant dedicated to recognizing the one person who contributes so much to modern family life...America's Married Woman! While beauty is a key element in the competition, Mrs. Colorado contestants are also urged to voice their opinions on marriage and important issues of the day.

Interested applicants are invited to find out more about the competition at www.mrscolorado.com or can request and receive free entry information by contacting Emily at the Mrs. Colorado office at 303-593-1199.
