

What's the Scoop? Has it gone poop?

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

---

A group of spectators wait patiently for Lucky to do its duty at the inaugural Cow Patty Bingo. After hours of waiting, one might have said the Cow Patty Bingo was a flop, but it turned out to be quite a “plop” in the end! Ron Goldenstein was the lucky winner of the 4-H Council fundraiser after several calves and steers were let loose in the bingo pen Thursday evening and Friday morning, July 29-30. 4-H members sold 1,024 tickets for the event with a percentage of the funds benefiting each 4-H club in the county.

—Enterprise photo