

Missoula Children's coming to Ogallala

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Auditions for the Missoula Children's Theatre production of King Arthur's Quest in Ogallala, Neb. will be held Monday, Jan. 10 from 4-6 p.m. at Prairie View Elementary.

There are roles for students in kindergarten through the 12th grade. Approximately 50-60 local students will be cast to appear in the show with the MCT Tour Actor/Director. There is no guarantee everyone who auditions will be cast in the play.

Students wishing to audition must arrive promptly by 4 p.m. and stay for the entire two-hour session. The first rehearsal begins approximately 15-30 minutes after the audition.

Rehearsals will be conducted every day from 4-8:30 p.m. at Prairie View Elementary on Monday and Ogallala High School the rest of the week.

Although not all cast members will be needed at every session, those auditioning must have a clear schedule for the entire week and if selected, be able to attend all rehearsals required for their role.

Cast members scheduled for the full 4.5 hours of rehearsal will be asked to bring a sack lunch, dinner or snack.

Performances will be held Saturday, Jan. 15 at 3 and 7 p.m. and will be presented at the Ogallala High School Lecture Hall. Students in the cast will be called for dress rehearsal before the performance that day. All those in the cast must be available for all scheduled performances.

Missoula Children's Theatre is a non-profit organization based in Missoula, Mont. The residency in Ogallala is made possible by the Ogallala Regional Arts Council and the Ogallala Optimists.
