

Nine students complete EMT class

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Nine students completed a four-month EMT-Basic class Saturday, April 2 after finishing their national registry practical testing. The students will now prepare for the national registry test to become certified EMTs. Students participating were from Holyoke, Haxtun and Julesburg.

Students and instructors are pictured from left, front row, Josh Whittaker, Chris Lee, Sheena Fix, Melissa Goldenstein, Pam Struckmeyer, instructor Melissa Mayden and Coordinator of Emergency Medical Services at NJC Tracy Yahn; and back row, Dominick Collier, Karen Juarez, Joseph Harris, lead instructor Terry Andersen, Derek Farmer and instructor Barry Winckler.

The class was held at Melissa Memorial Hospital as part the EMS program at Northeastern Junior College in Sterling.

Not pictured are instructors Bob Heldenbrand, Christie Winckler and Kevin Oestman.