

Final Health Fair for Caring and Sharing

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

□□ Ever since Melissa Memorial Hospital started hosting the annual Holyoke Health Fair, members of the Caring and Sharing organization have volunteered their time, preparing meals, snacks and beverages and distributing them to workers at the event. However, the group recently announced this year's Health Fair, held Saturday, March 21, was to be its last. Members of Caring and Sharing who helped serve workers at the Health Fair one last time are pictured from left, Marge Schneider, Bette Linnenbrink, Lois Carruthers, Eileen Moss, Ardis Conklin, Bijie Anderson and Carole Blomme.
