Those who would like to enjoy an early Christmas meal may do so Sunday, Dec. 18.

The traditional Christmas meal will be held at First United Methodist Church from 4-8 p.m.

The free meal will be accompanied by live entertainment and fun.

A taxi service will be available for those who need assistance getting to the church. A delivery service will also be available for those who would like their Christmas meal delivered Sunday.

There is no need to RSVP but it would be appreciated, especially from those who would like a delivery or taxi service.

Contact Kala Yost at 520-0622 or First United Methodist Church at 854-2433. Anyone wishing to help with the event may do so by contacting the numbers above.
