

Sunday sun leads to fun time in the snow

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

☐☐ Mason Powell, 2, is very proud of his first snowman, which he and his dad Aaron made in his back yard Sunday afternoon, April 5. High winds accompanied Saturday's snow, causing unusual drifting in places and no snow at all in others. Road and street crews, as well as the sunshine, helped clear the county for almost back-to-normal activity by Monday.☐☐ —Enterprise photo