As part of their senior thesis art show, Michaela Worley from Holyoke, Dani Wright from Fort Collins and Sara Tall from San Diego, Calif. will present lectures about their art endeavors Sunday, April 1 at 1 p.m. in the Wilson Center Auditorium at Hastings College in Hastings, Neb.

Their presentations will be followed by a gallery reception and show at the Hastings College Art Gallery.

From March 26-April 5, art produced by the three seniors within the last year will be on display at the art gallery.

The exhibit, lectures and reception will be free and open to the public. Regular gallery hours are 8:30 a.m.-4 p.m., Monday-Friday.

Hastings College, founded in 1882, is a private, four-year liberal arts institution affiliated with the Presbyterian Church (USA). A total of 63 majors in 32 areas of study and 12 pre-professional programs are offered to more than 1,150 students. Visit www.hastings.edu for more information.
