

Strong winds do damage

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Strong wind gusts put a damper on people's weekend activities Sunday, April 15 when wind gusts upward of 50 mph were recorded for much of the day. This tree located just north of the Holyoke School District administration office succumbed to the wind and toppled over. Luckily, the tree was far enough from the building, and no damage was done.

—Enterprise photo

Holyoke Enterprise April 19, 2012