

Guest author to be in Wray Saturday

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Melissa Stramel of Lilac Lane in Colby, Kan. will be appearing Saturday, June 23 as guest author at Granma's Treasures, 301 Main St. in Wray. She will be autographing copies of her new book, A Year of Making Life Beautiful.

Stramel is a native of Kansas, married with three children and has begun a new career as a fabric and pattern designer.

This first book contains 45 projects to bake, grow, quilt or sew—a charming look into country living. In both hard cover and spiral bound, A Year of Making Life Beautiful is available through Granma's Treasures.
