

Metropolitan Opera Series coming to Holyoke at Peerless

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

NCM Fathom Events, the Metropolitan Opera and the Peerless Theatre in Holyoke are presenting the 2012-13 Met Opera LIVE in High Definition in a 12-series season.

Half-season and full-season tickets will allow a savings per ticket and can be purchased through the Peerless website at www.thepeerlesstheatre.com or at the Peerless starting Friday, Sept. 7.

Peerless co-manager Bob Brandt said a season pass allows 12 “punches” and a half-season pass is six punches.

For example, the 12-punch pass allows one person to attend all 12 LIVE events or take a friend and self to six events or a combination of the friend/self attendance for a total of 12 punches.

The seventh season of The Met: Live in HD begins with Donizetti’s L’Elisir d’Amore Saturday, Oct. 13. All 12 of the Metropolitan Opera series shows are on Saturday afternoons.

The rest of the 12-show LIVE season series includes:

Otello, Oct. 27; The Tempest, Nov. 10; La Clemenza di Tito, Dec. 1; Un Ballo in Maschera, Dec. 8; Aida, Dec. 15; Les Troyens, Jan. 5; Maria Stuarda, Jan. 19; Rigoletto, Feb. 16; Parsifal, March 2; Francesca da Rimini, March 16; and Giulio Cesare, April 27.
