

Books so good you just can't put them down!

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Saturday, Sept. 8 was once again the Friends of the Library's annual Book Bonanza, and it seemed like just about everyone found a treasure they just couldn't put down. Janet Strasser and Sharron Lett are pictured above browsing through the hundreds of books donated for the event. The book sale, held at the Heginbotham Library Carriage House, was a success, raising over $500. A second sale date is set for Friday, Sept. 14 from noon to 5 p.m. □ □

—Enterprise photo

Holyoke Enterprise September 13, 2012