A southwest Nebraska chorus is forming again for its bi-annual Christmas concert later this year in Imperial, Neb.

Under the direction of Joel Grosbach of Enders, Neb., the first practice will take place Sunday, Sept. 23, from 1:30-3:30 p.m. at Zion Lutheran Church in Imperial.

In past years, singers from Imperial, Grant, Neb., Wauneta, Neb., Holyoke and other area communities have participated in the choir. All interested singers high school age and older are welcome to be part of the chorus, Grosbach said.

The Christmas concert will be performed Sunday, Dec. 9 at Imperial Zion Lutheran Church.
