

Haunted house scares the bejeebers out of kids

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Those who were brave enough sure had something to worry about as they slowly made their way through the haunted house located at Phillips County Fairgrounds. Phillips County Extension office put together the haunted house which was located in the Boy Scout Cabin. Numerous creatures lurked in the darkness ready to scare those walking through.

Immediately below, Josie Herman and Emily Jelden hold onto each other as they emerge from the fog and reach the end of the haunted house Sunday night, Oct. 28.□□
