

Extravaganza a success

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

With over $1,100 raised for Heginbotham Library, the annual Holiday Extravaganza was a huge success. Library staff, board and Friends of the Library members partnered for the event, selling homemade gifts and goodies. Librarian Laura Roth said they are working with Friends of the Library on a few projects which the money can go toward, and it's great to know there will be funds for the summer reading programs.
