Eighty-four attended the annual Holyoke High School Alumni Association Banquet at SunSet View Community Center in Holyoke Sunday, May 24.

Those classes which graduated in years ending in "9" were recognized at the annual program, and veterans were honored, as well.

Honor classes and number of class reps who attended the banquet were: 1949, eight; 1959, five; 1969, three; 1979, two; and 1989, one GED.

Musical entertainment was provided by vocal music teacher Marcia Dalton and students Ella Stewart and Kaylee Groshans.

Special recognition was given to Barb Banaka for the extensive work she's done for the alumni association over the years.

Helen Smith Miller served as emcee for the program, and Elwin Poe gave the invocation.

The banquet meal was catered by Bill and Kristie Pelle and served by Holyoke FCCLA chapter members.
