

Members of the community gather to ‘Pray for America’

Written by Holyoke Enterprise
Wednesday, 08 May 2013 07:31 -

A handful of Phillips County pastors gathered at the Peerless Theatre, along with approximately 25 members of the community, to celebrate National Day of Prayer Thursday, May 2. Pictured from left, Max Hines, Merle Powell, Al Strauss, Mark Phillips and Gordon Penfold stand united to help lead a prayer.

With the theme being “Pray for America,” prayers were offered for families, churches, military, businesses, media, education and government.□□

—Enterprise photo

Holyoke Enterprise May 9, 2013