

Dani Brandt to tour with New Ways Singers

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Soprano Dani Brandt was selected for New Ways Singers after auditioning for the two-week choir tour with Nebraska Christian College.

After rehearsing for a few days at the college in Papillion, Neb., the group of around 40 high school vocalists will hit five states along their tour June 9-23.

The group focuses on singing but will also incorporate some dancing and instrumental portions into their concert performances.

Brandt, who will be an HHS sophomore next year, is involved with the HHS choir and will be in her second year of Select Choir. She thought it would be cool to be in New Ways because her dad Jerry and sister Nicole are both New Ways alumni. Others from Holyoke who were part of the summer tour group in the past include Gentry Lock and Kasey Smith.

2013 tour dates and locations include Central City, Neb., June 13; Huron, S.D., June 14; Gillette, Wyo., June 15-16; Billings, Mont., June 16; Riverton, Wyo., June 18; Cheyenne, Wyo., June 19; Colorado Springs, June 20; Scottsbluff, Neb., June 21; Clay Center, Neb., June 22; and Nebraska Christian College, Papillion, June 23.

Holyoke Enterprise June 6, 2013