

Coloring books are 125th anniversary keepsakes

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Holyoke art teachers Christina Martinez and Rhonda Smith, in conjunction with the Holyoke Chamber of Commerce, have put together the “Holyoke, CO—Celebrating 125th Anniversary” coloring book. Holyoke students provided art of things to do and see in and around Holyoke for the 52-page coloring book. 2013 senior Jaydin Goldenstein is featured with the cover art, pictured above.

The commemorative keepsake coloring books are available at the Holyoke Chamber office, located in the Peerless Center at 212 S. Interocean, or by calling executive director Mary Tomky at 854-3517.
