

Blushing blooms

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

It's the middle of July, and summer is now in full bloom, especially in the 1100 block of South Bowman Avenue at the house of Fred and Ardie Besse. These two flower barrels are on a date, with the bright blue guy on the left making eyes at a blushing pink gal on the right. With temps pushing 100 degrees this week, it was nice to have a little rain heading into the week, reported at 0.44 inches on Sunday, July 7 and 0.12 inches on Monday.☺☺
