

Museum plays huge role in local area author's research

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

---

Local area author Jean Gray of Haxtun is pictured at right as she hands a signed copy of her new book to museum assistant Rachel Schneider. The Phillips County Historical Society hosted a book signing by Gray at the museum last Wednesday, July 10. Gray shared delightful stories of her research and commended the museum staff and the museum materials for the role they played in the writing of her history book. “Homesteading Haxtun and the High Plains: Northeastern Colorado History” was just published this summer by History Press, based in Charleston, S.C.

—Enterprise photo

Holyoke Enterprise July 18, 2013