

Hinrichs in town for book signing

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Phillips County High School grad Jody Kropp Hinrichs was on hand for a book signing at Phillips County Museum Saturday, July 27. Her recently-released novel, under the pen name JE Freis, is a historical fiction piece about early homesteaders during the pre- and post- Dust Bowl eras of the Great American Desert.

Hinrichs, pictured above, signs copies of “Triumph of the Spirit: land... love... life...” for a crowd at the museum last weekend.
