

Book author aims to motivate, make a difference in lives

Written by Darci Tomky

Motivational speaker Kimberly Ertle-Clark is celebrating the launch of her new book, "How to Make a Difference in Your Life in 40 Days."

"I know I'm going to be guided to help others on this earth," said Ertle-Clark, who hopes her book will help other people in tough situations.

The newly-published pages are part book, part journal that came about during a bad time in Ertle-Clark's life. After hearing a message in church about Jesus being in the desert for 40 days, she marked one through 40 days on her own calendar. Each day she assigned herself one small task that could be accomplished during that day.
