

Let's hear it for the cheese!

Written by Darci Tomky
Wednesday, 06 November 2013 14:58 -

It was a sold-out show at Phillips County Event Center Tuesday, Oct. 29 for the Taste of Home Cooking School national tour, sponsored and coordinated by Star 92.3 radio station.

Culinary specialist Guy Klinzing spent two hours demonstrating 10 recipes on stage, sharing his tips, tricks and an occasional musical number to entertain the crowd and keep them on their toes. Throughout the show he celebrated his "Let's hear it for the cheese!" tagline, with help from several local ladies as his assistants.

To read the full article, subscribe to our e-Edition. Call 970-854-2811.

Chef Guy Klinzing, at right, demonstrates a recipe on stage at the Taste of Home Cooking School, while Stephanie Krogmeier of Holyoke, at left, watches on as one of his assistants. □ □

—Enterprise photo

Let's hear it for the cheese!

Written by Darci Tomky

Wednesday, 06 November 2013 14:58 -

Holyoke Enterprise November 7, 2013