

Veterans treated to breakfast

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Sixty students in Holyoke from grades 8-12 and 25 staff members volunteered to help decorate, cook and serve a free breakfast to local veterans on Veterans Day, Monday, Nov. 11 at Holyoke High School beginning at 7 a.m. The breakfast was the tip of the iceberg as the annual Veterans Day program took place later in the afternoon.
