

Phillips County receives Starburst Award

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Phillips County was the recipient of one of just 15 Starburst Awards given out in Colorado for its use of lottery funds for the playground, turf field and disc golf course at Homesteaders Park. While at the park Friday, Nov. 8, pictured from left, Colorado Lottery community relations specialist Matt Robbins presents Phillips County commissioners Harlan Stern, Joe Kinnie and Don Lock with the award.

—Enterprise photo

Holyoke Enterprise November 14, 2013