

Around Town

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

---

Lighting contest to be judged Dec. 11-13

The City of Holyoke and Holyoke Enterprise are sponsoring the community's 22nd annual holiday lighting contest, which will be judged Dec. 11-13.

To be included for judging, residents should simply have their lights on and/or decorations up at 6 p.m. each evening, Wednesday-Friday, Dec. 11-13. Judges will be driving around town those evenings.

Any lighting display within Holyoke city limits or in a half-mile radius is eligible. Judging will be based on originality, decorative effect and overall effect.

Those who want to make sure the judges don't miss them or a display they've admired should call the City office at 854-2266 or The Holyoke Enterprise at 854-2811 by Wednesday, Dec. 11 at 1 p.m. Last year's winners are ineligible this year.

Library Extravaganza is Sunday

Don't miss this year's Heginbotham Library Extravaganza Sunday, Dec. 8 from 2-4 p.m., where refreshments and homemade gift items are showcased at the beautifully decorated library.

Choir concert is next Monday

Around Town

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

---

Monday, Dec. 9 is set for the winter choir concert at 7 p.m. at the HHS auditorium. It will feature junior high, high school and select choirs and various solos, all under the direction of Marcia Dalton, as well as trivia questions with prizes.

HVFD responds to fire alarm

Sirens rang out Tuesday, Nov. 26 close to 1:20 p.m. for a fire alarm at Regent Park. It was determined that smoke caused from a malfunction in a dryer set off the alarm.

Holyoke Enterprise December 5, 2013