

Around Town

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Recipes sought for community cookbook

The HHS 21st century skills class and FCCLA are collecting recipes to make community cookbooks. Proceeds from cookbook sales will benefit “Share Our Strength” to fight child hunger in the U.S. Please send in any recipes to Holyoke High School or Holyoke Elementary School.

Bridal edition debuts in this week’s paper

Johnson Publications’ first bridal edition is inserted in this week’s Enterprise. It features wedding articles, ads and more—all for the bride-to-be.

No school Mon.

A teacher inservice Monday, Jan. 27 means students in Re-1J schools in Holyoke will get the day off.

□

HVFD responds to crash Sat.

Around Town

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

A two-vehicle collision involving a car and a semi caused the sirens to ring out Saturday, Jan. 18 at noon. The crash occurred nine miles north of Holyoke at the intersection of Highway 385 and Phillips County Road 40.

No extrication was needed and the Holyoke Volunteer Fire Department assisted EMS.

Holyoke Enterprise January 23, 2014