

Prayer vigil Jan. 25 for Kelsie Schelling

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

The community remembers Kelsie Jean Schelling with fondness and hope as the one-year anniversary of her disappearance approaches.

A candlelight prayer vigil for Kelsie is being planned for this Saturday, Jan. 25 at 5 p.m. at Holyoke City Park near the gazebo area. In case of bad weather, the vigil will move to Zion Lutheran Church.

Pastor Gary Rahe will lead the informal vigil, which will include prayer, Scripture reading and music.

Schelling will be 23 in February and has been missing for almost a year, since Feb. 4, 2013, when she was last seen in Pueblo. She was eight weeks pregnant at the time of her disappearance.

Kelsie's parents are Doug Schelling of Holyoke and Laura Saxton of Yuma.
