

Subzero temps ... not cool

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Many were not a fan of Mother Nature last week when below-zero temperatures threatened an already snow-covered Holyoke. Temps plummeted to -24 degrees Fahrenheit on Wednesday, Feb. 5, one of the seven consecutive days with lows below zero, from Feb. 1-7.

Above, Remington Hielscher dashes from the car to school Friday morning, Feb. 7 in temperatures hovering around zero.
