

Around Town

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

---

Weather spotter training is Tues.

National Weather Service will hold its annual weather spotter training Tuesday, March 18 from 3:30-5:30 p.m. at the Phillips County Event Center Ortner Room. Call 970-854-3778 for more information.

School gets extra-long spring break

Because of the state basketball tournament, Holyoke School District will not have school this Thursday and Friday, March 13-14. That means students and teachers get an extra-long spring break, which will continue all next week, Monday-Friday, March 17-21. Classes resume Monday, March 24.

Special section inserted this week in paper

“Have the Time of your Life” is a special section published by the four Johnson Publications newspapers, featuring a stroll down memory lane, tips on how to stay active, volunteer opportunities and more!

Hospital board election canceled

Around Town

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

---

Three candidates filed nomination petitions for the three open seats on the East Phillips County Hospital District board. As a result, the May 6 election has been canceled.

Candidates who will take office for four-year terms in May are incumbents Steve Young and Mike “Woody” Woodhead and newcomer Angela Powell.

Holyoke Enterprise March 13, 2014