

Phillips Co. Arts Council brings Mack Bailey to town

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

---

Folk sensation Mack Bailey will fill the Holyoke High School auditorium with his combination of folk and pop music Thursday, April 24 at 7:30 p.m. The concert is made possible by the Phillips County Arts Council as part of the 2013-14 concert season.

A lot can be said about the musical company singer/songwriter Mack Bailey keeps.

Bailey has earned praise from Glenn Yarbrough, the original tenor in the fabulous world-renowned folk trio The Limelites. Yarbrough referred to Bailey as “the next great singer in folk music.” Bailey’s career came full circle when in 2004 he was asked to be the newest tenor in The Limelites, with whom he now performs around the country.

To read the full article, subscribe to our e-Edition. Call 970-854-2811 for details!

Holyoke Enterprise April 17, 2014