

Crowd rocks at country music concert

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Phillips County Fair was a stop on the first nationwide headline tour for Country Music Association recording artist Jake Gill.

An estimated 350 people celebrated summertime at the fairgrounds arena with some great music, a little dancing and a beautiful sunset Friday, July 25.

Subscribe to our e-Edition to get the full story! Call 970-854-2811.

Carissa Mill, at left, is twirled by husband Peter during the Friday night Jake Gill concert at the Phillips County Fair. □ □

—Enterprise photo

Crowd rocks at country music concert

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Holyoke Enterprise Aug. 7, 2014