

Gospel concert in Wray Aug. 9

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Country Praise in the Park, featuring Sandra Dee and the Gospel Trail, is scheduled at Rainbow Park in Wray Sunday, Aug. 9 at 10 a.m. The concert will be followed by a free lunch at noon.

Sponsored by the Wray Southern Baptist Church, admission is free, with a free will offering to be taken.

Sandra Dee is a national Christian country artist who ministers through her songs. She is anointed to preach the gospel and is a great intercessor prayer warrior.

As a Christian country music singer, she has made her debut with the hit album, "Tomorrow's Another Day." It was this special album that distinguished her name in the country music industry and has brought so many listeners closer to Christianity.

Sandra Dee and husband Charlie Mahone have been touring and ministering all over the nation for the past five years. Being ordained evangelists, with their testimonies and the gift of Sandra Dee's voice, they have been called to churches, cowboy churches, rodeos, women's meetings, schools, concerts and conferences nationwide.

Gospel Trail Ministries is an evangelical country gospel band that is dedicated to sharing the Bible and the message of Christ through music wherever possible. "To that end, we seek to share the gospel message that through the shed blood and death of Jesus Christ, the one and only Son of God, we can obtain life eternal with God the Father in heaven."

Those attending are encouraged to take their lawn chair or blanket. Further questions can be answered by calling 970-332-4518.
