Phillips County 4-H members brought home several honors from the recent 2010 Colorado State Fair in the livestock and shooting sports competitions.

First place and champion honors went to Austin Vieselmeyer in Junior Yearling Breeding Heifers for MainTainer Heifer.

Also earning first place were both Kaylee Camblin and Tyler Camblin in Market Beef.

Austin Vieselmeyer brought home third place awards in Market Beef and Angus Senior Heifer Calves in addition to his 12th place finish in Market Hogs.

Hannah Gillmore earned third and 11th place in Market Sheep. Seventh place went to Janna Smith in Market Goats.

In Market Hogs, Alex Vieselmeyer finished in 10th place while Brian Strong landed in 12th place.

Junior participants in this year's Colorado State Fair shooting sports were Wyatt McCallum, Gage Tuell, Preston Salvador, Trenton Huffman and Tristen Roll.

Senior participants included Trae McCallum, Blake Mari and Wyatt Bishop.
