

RRWCD to hold regular meeting

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

The Board of Directors of the Republican River Water Conservation District will be holding its regular quarterly meeting in Wray Thursday, Oct. 14 at 10 a.m.-4 p.m. at the United Methodist Church.

Agenda items scheduled include: approve minutes of previous meetings; approve quarterly financials; receive reports updates and reports on programs; recognize appointments of Directors for new terms from Yuma and Logan counties, the Frenchman and Sandhills Ground Water Management Districts, and the Ground Water Commission; election of officers; review committee assignments; approve resolution to hold special board meeting in Greeley; consider and approve the RRWCD-WAE budget for 2011; approve resolution opposing Amendments 60 and 61 and Proposition 101; authorize the filing of an application to change the South Fork water rights purchased by the RRWCD-WAE; consider terminating the lease of the Dryden West Property and water rights and putting the property and water rights up for bid; discussion of leasing the Tracy water rights; consider progressing with the construction of the Compact Compliance Pipeline; as well as other matters.

Public Comment will be held at 1 p.m.

If necessary, the RRWCD Board of Directors will hold an executive session to develop a strategy for negotiations for the purchase, acquisition or lease of water rights, easements and property and to receive advice on legal questions, and to discuss personnel matters.

For further information concerning the details of this meeting, contact Stan Murphy, General Manager Republican River Water Conservation District at 970-332-3552 or e-mail rrwcd@centurytel.net.