

New maintainer arrives without a steering wheel

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Steve Triplette sits in the cab of a new 140M Caterpillar maintainer recently purchased by Phillips County. The new machine is controlled solely by two joysticks instead of the conventional steering wheel. Triplette was busy Monday, April 4 installing blade extensions and a bracket on the front of the new piece of equipment. He will serve as the primary operator of the CAT machine. □ □

—Enterprise photo