

Levi Williamson joins Sterling law firm

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

---

Baxter W. Arnold and Alexander L. Wright of the Sterling law firm Arnold, Ross and Wright, LLC, are pleased to announce that Levi D. Williamson has become a member of the firm, and the name of the firm has changed to Arnold, Wright & Williamson, LLC.

Williamson graduated Summa Cum Laude from Oklahoma City University School of Law in 2003. He graduated first in his class, was a member of the OCU Law Review, and was a Hatton W. Sumner Scholar.

After graduating from law school, Williamson passed the Colorado Bar Exam and began his legal career with the international law firm Holme, Roberts & Owen, LLP in Denver. He worked as an associate in the firm's complex commercial litigation department from 2003-2007.

Williamson and his wife Karin moved to Sterling in 2007, at which time he joined Arnold, Ross and Associates, LLC as an associate attorney. Both Levi and Karin are Holyoke High School graduates. Their parents are Dave and Linda Williamson and Mark and Joanie Groshans, all of Holyoke.

Since joining the firm, Williamson has advised clients in a wide variety of areas including civil litigation, public utility law, wills and other estate planning and administration, business law, family law, real estate and collections, to name just a few.

Arnold, Wright & Williamson, LLC has specialized for many years in real estate, probate, business law, civil litigation, public utility law, family law, bankruptcy and many other areas of law. The firm has served Sterling and the surrounding communities for more than 50 years.