

Credit Union annual meeting Feb. 20 at HHS

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Holyoke/Imperial Community Federal Credit Union will hold its annual meeting Monday, Feb. 20 in the HHS auditorium.

Prior to the meeting, credit union members are invited to a light meal in the high school old gymnasium beginning at 6 p.m. The meeting will start in the auditorium following the meal.

One board director for Holyoke will be elected during the meeting. Garold Roberts has decided to run and nominations will be taken from the floor during the meeting.

Those currently on the board include Rick Krueger, Laura Bittner, Steve Starkebaum, Nancy Berges and Scott Murray in Holyoke and Wanda Westfahl and Charles Milner in Imperial.

Krueger will be stepping down this year.

Other business items on the agenda include a report from board chairman Krueger, treasurer Charles Milner, president Ron Goldenstein, supervisory committee Wes Holmes and loan officer committee Deb Dusenbury-Dorren.

Following the business meeting, members will have the opportunity to try for cash and prizes in the popular money machine.

Children ages 3-9 whose parents are attending the meeting are invited to take part in the Young Members' Meeting for entertainment and activities in the HHS library with the Challengers 4-H Club.
