

Sen. Bennet receives award

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

The National Farmers Union recently honored Colorado U.S. Sen. Michael Bennet with the 2013 Golden Triangle Award, the organization's highest legislative honor. The annual award is presented to members of Congress who have demonstrated leadership and support policies that benefit America's family farmers, ranchers, fishermen and rural communities.

"Colorado's farmers and ranchers are a crucial part of our agriculture industry that provides food, fuel and fiber to our state and nation," Bennet, a member of the Senate Agriculture Committee, said.
