

Highline Electric Association recognized for safety

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

---

Highline Electric Association received the Colorado Rural Electric Annual Safety Award for 2012. HEA also received this award in 2005. Accepting the award are, pictured from left, operations manager David Churchwell, Holyoke line superintendent Rance Ferguson, Ovid line superintendent Les Stutzman, Sterling line superintendent Steve Wagner and manager Mark Farnsworth.

“The employees of Highline Electric Association strive to do their jobs professionally, efficiently and especially safely,” Farnsworth said. “This award proves that they have done that. The board and I congratulate all our employees on this achievement.”

Holyoke Enterprise November 14, 2013