

Linda Langelo honored at annual CSU Extension Forum

Written by Kyle Arnoldy

Seven years after initially partnering with the Phillips County Arts Council to showcase the art of gardening, CSU Extension Golden Plains Area horticulture program associate Linda Langelo has been honored with the 2013 Distinguished Service Award for her work with community gardens.

Langelo was named the sole winner of the prestigious award at the state level in recognition of excellence in community engagement at the annual CSU Extension Forum in Fort Collins Tuesday, Nov. 5.

“I was excited, very excited,” Langelo said about getting the phone call that informed her of the award. “It’s almost unbelievable. This has been a seven-year work in progress.”

Langelo was nominated for the award by 4-H youth development and family consumer science agent Gisele Jefferson and received a letter of support from David Henson, director of human services in Wray.

To read the full article, call us about subscribing to our e-Edition. 970-854-2811

Linda Langelo honored at annual CSU Extension Forum

Written by Kyle Arnoldy

CSU Extension Golden Plains Area horticulture program associate Linda Langelo is pictured with her 2013
Distinguished Service Award at the Holyoke community garden. □ □

—Enterprise photo

Holyoke Enterprise November 21, 2013