

Brian Gales named BOC branch manager

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Bank of Colorado announces the promotion of Brian Gales to branch manager of the Holyoke branch.

Previously, Gales was vice president of commercial lending and operations for the Holyoke Bank of Colorado branch for the last 2 1/2 years.

He brings over six years of lending and executive management experience to the bank. He is now responsible for the overall management of the branch operation, as well as all aspects of agriculture and commercial lending. This includes operating loans and lines, equipment loans, livestock loans and real estate opportunities in the Holyoke area.

Gales will also continue to provide additional financial services as a Raymond James financial advisor.
