

Meier promoted to BOC regional pres.

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Bank of Colorado has announced the promotion of Steve Meier to regional president of Bank of Colorado for its northeastern Colorado branches.

Meier joined Bank of Colorado in 1995 and has served as vice president of lending and branch president, with over 30 years of lending and management experience.

Along with managing the day-to-day operations of the Sterling branch, he will also be responsible for the performance, image and growth of the Akron, Brush, Fort Morgan, Holyoke, Sterling and Yuma branches for Bank of Colorado.
