

JV girls win over Haxtun

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Holyoke jayvee girls' basketball brought home a victory Friday, Jan. 15 when they beat Haxtun 26-17 in a three-quarter game.

With a strong first quarter, the Dragons held a five-point lead, 10-5. After adding three points in the second quarter, Holyoke kicked it up a notch with 13 points in the third, securing the win over the Bulldogs.

Mallory Bennett led Dragon scoring with eight points followed by Annie Daniel and Kaylee Groshans with seven apiece and Heather Duester and Emily Bradley two apiece