

C boys win two games

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

HHS Boys' C basketball team grabbed two wins over Sedgwick County and Haxtun. They traveled to Julesburg Friday, Jan. 22 and thumped the Cougars 50-12. Haxtun came to town Monday, Jan. 25 and the Dragons snuck by the Bulldogs 39-33.

Holyoke C 50, Sedgwick County 12

The game was never close as the Dragons hit the floor running and put up 17 points in the opening quarter.

Deyten Klein led the team with 18 points followed by Shaun Beck with 13, Phillip Beck seven, Bradley Coyne and Matt Golden each with four while Logan Zeiler and José Jaquez each netted two points.

Klein finished 3-3 from the free throw line.

Holyoke C 39, Haxtun 33

Haxtun jumped out to the early 21-19 lead but the Dragons rolled back to win a close 39-33 decision.

Klein led the team with 13 points. Phillip Beck scored 11, Coyne six, Golden four, Brandon Oosthuysen three and Zeiler two.